

Ideas of John Locke

John Locke was the most important influence on the thinking of the founding fathers at the time of the American Revolution. Locke's political philosophy is often called the natural rights philosophy.

Write a short story on the back of this page that tells how the rights to life, liberty, and property apply to you and your family.

People have natural rights to life, liberty, and property.

Government is created to protect the rights of people and has only the limited and specific powers the people consent to give it.
